

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

(From the Comet.)

The little two year old child of Mr. Green Sherman died last Saturday and was buried Sunday.

Rev. R. Curry of Sherman, Texas, spent a few days in our city this week. He left Wednesday for South McAlistar.

Prof. Inman E. Page, President of the Langston university lectured at the opera house Monday evening, Aug. 1st to a small audience.

Mr. Johnson, an old gentleman who lives near the Old Creek Livery Barn, is quite ill and desires to have his friends come around to see him.

Rev. Seth Neal of Guthrie, O. T., was on the streets recently. The Rev. is Grand Mentor of the Knights of Tabor and is on his Grand round for the year.

Miss Minnie Keller who has been visiting friends in Kansas for the past three months has returned to home and friends. She reports having enjoyed a pleasant trip.

Prof. J. E. Johnson of Tallahassee mission is frequently seen on our streets. The Prof. is very busy making ready for the opening of his school in good shape when the time comes.

The Comet man left the city Sunday night bound for Ardmore where he will attend the Grand Lodge of G. U. O. of O. F. hence the Comet is left to the care of Miss C. W. Toombs his daughter.

Mr. Walter Young has bought out the ice cream parlor formerly run by Mr. James Sturgeon who will now go into another line of business. Mr. Young is a polite young man and solicit your patronage.

Mrs. H. M. Fletcher, who expected to visit her home and who was reported as having gone to Arkansas and Louisiana, is still in the city owing to the unforeseen causes which arose just as she was ready to take her departure.

The 3rd Quarterly conference of the A. M. E. church was not in every way a success. The attendance was not good and the assessment fell all of fifty per cent behind. Rev. Tyson, P. E., preached at 11 a. m. and at 8 p. m.

Mr. T. A. Barnett, So. 5th St., has bought the grocery business formerly run by Mr. Faint, added more room to the building and is now doing a nice business. He promises to keep a full stock of groceries on hand for the accommodation of the public. Call on him and give a lift.

The Honorables Geo. Fitzpatrick and S. T. Wiggins passed through Muskogee, Saturday, enroute to St. Louis, and were joined by L. A. Bell, W. H.

Twine, Frank Reed, L. F. Fue and J. C. Johnson. They go to attend the World's Congress of Masons, which meet there this week.
